Night of Worship featuring Jubal Brass

This group features more than 35 talented brass players from across the state of Georgia. Many are current or retired worship pastors, band directors, and lifelong musicians who share a passion for using their gifts to encourage others in worship.

At our Night of Worship on October 8th, you can expect a lively and varied program featuring the energy of big-band music, the rich character of jazz, and stirring brass arrangements of beloved traditional hymns. The evening will be more than a performance—it will be an opportunity to connect with God and one another, as audience members are invited to lift their voices through congregational hymn singing.

A special gospel presentation by our Pastor, Danny Anderson, will also be part of the evening, creating a meaningful and memorable experience of worship, music, and fellowship for all.
